Hoegaarden II, King, and Chiara, Queen, Outlands

Greetings unto the Mighty Kingdom of the Outlands;

As the summer's days have grown shorter and the camping season is winding down, we thank each and every one of you for sharing your time with us. We've met many new acquaintances in our travels and certainly enjoyed the company of many friends. The Outlands has grown to become our family and home, our strength and our pride.

The Kingdom of the Outlands has need of Royal Heirs. Witness the grand Crown Tournament on September 10th – 11th, as we shall proclaim throughout the land the victors and our heirs. We will hold peer circles at this event and ask the peers able to attend to share those customs and traditions that are the backbone of our fine kingdom. Please join us and support those who will lead us into battle in the upcoming Estrella War.

We thank all of those wonderful people who worked so hard to make our Kingdom shine at Known World Heralds and Scribes. So many of you worked incredibly hard, taking care of many things that were necessary; it was certainly a kingdom effort. Baron's War was an absolute joy! We thank all of your Excellencies for attending and sharing in our court, as well as the many who came and had outright fun. Pennsic was phenomenal, with the Outlanders in attendance a shining example of greatness. We thank all of you who joined in on the workload to make our kingdom proud. The hospitality of the far south was outstanding at the fun-filled Clann War event. Thank you all for making it so enjoyable.

In September, we travel to the ancient Pawnee grasslands to enjoy a wonderful Talon's of Fury event. The Outlands Crown tourney will be held in the Shire of Duthaic Beinne Aird and should be joyous to view by all those able to attend. His Majesty will travel southward to witness the Champions event in al-Barran. There are several other events within our borders that are well worth traveling to, with fun and camaraderie to be found waiting for you.

We remind all of the Stag's Bloods of the tourneys to be proclaimed the Captain of the Stag's Bloods. One tourney will take place at the Silver Pass event and the other tourney will occur at the Talons of Fury event. The winners of each tourney will meet at the Fighter's Collegium to take place at the Stag's Con event in October. Also just around the corner is Stag's Con event, not only for officers and fighters, but a chance for our Peers to speak with the Society Seneschal to share their words with him regarding the Curia of Ibrahim and Ileana . We hope many are able to attend and join us.

In service to the Outlands,

Hoegaarden II — King

Chiara — Queen

SCA Board of Directors

The Board of Directors is currently accepting commentary on the following proposed revision to Copora IX.A.5 (Youth Combat)

Corpora IX.A.5 currently reads in part:

"No person who has not attained his or her sixteenth (16th) birthday may be authorized in armored combat or the marshaling of armored combat. No person who has not attained his or her fourteenth (14th) birthday may be authorized for any form of Society combat-related activity."

This section was written prior to the existence of Youth Combat programs in the SCA, and the exisiting working appears to ban youth combat. This is not the Board's intent, so the following change is proposed:

"In order to be authorized as a combatant or marshal in adult armored combat, an individual must have attained his or her sixteenth (16th) birthday. In order to be authorized as a participant, combatant, or marshal in any other form of Society combat-related activity, except Youth Combat, an individual must have attained his or her fourteenth (14th) birthday."

Adding the word "Adult" removes the potential confusion with youth combat activities.

Interested parties should provide their commentary to the Directors by no later than October 1, 2005. Comments may be sent to comments@sca.org or directors@sca.org.

Kingdom Seneschal of the Outlands

Unto the good and noble populace of the Outlands, greetings!

In this month's Outlandish Herald, there is a change to Kingdom Law which was read at Baron's War, August 6th, 2005. This change is due to a shift in the structure of the Kingdom Herald's office. The Rampart Herald has been changed to an external commentator position, the internal submissions herald, currently known as the Castle Herald, is now the correct person to send your proposed arms to. For more information, you can contact your branch herald or Lady Sorcha, White Stag Principal Hereald.

In other news, Stagscon is just around the corner. I would like to thank the Barony of Caerthe for their hospitality. The Honorable Lord Robert Marchet is the autocrat for this event, and if you have any questions about the event, please get in touch with him. His contact information can be found on the deputies' page of this OH. Attending Stagscon is an excellent step towards achieving your lifelong goal of becoming an officer of the Outlands or improving your knowledge and skill in your current office. Master Aaron Swiftrunner, Society Seneschal, will also be in attendance and I know full well that the Outlands will extend him every courtesy.

Congratulations to Duke Hrothgar Monomakh on becoming Society Earl Marshal, and to Maestra Francesca di Pavia, who recently stepped down as the President of the SCA, Inc., for her years of dedicated service to the Society.

Kingdom Minister of the Arts & Sciences

Unto the Artisans of the Outlands and those who support us in our endeavors do I send Greetings

It is my very great pleasure to announce a Queen's Prize Tournament will be convened for the honor of our Beloved Queen Chiara in the Barony of Fontaine dans Sable on the 29th day of October.

All artisans at every level and of any age are encouraged to participate. Items entered are not required to be complete but must be documented. Each artisan will be assigned a particular time at which they should be with their entry and available to those who offer discussion about it. Each artisan must have a sponsor. Laurels, Flowers, and Ladies of the Rose are eligible to act as sponsors. Those who volunteer to act as sponsors are also eligible to enter the competition if they are in turn sponsored by another.

It is the sponsor's responsibility to register the artisan, to provide such support and encouragement as the artisan requires, and to make themselves available to offer commentary to other artisans. Each sponsor should bring one prize per artisan sponsored and such additional small tokens of appreciation as they feel appropriate. Each sponsor will be asked to comment on a minimum of as many artisans as they sponsor, possibly more as the administrative requirements of the event dictate.

Pre Registration is required. Sponsors are responsible for registering themselves and the artisans they represent. The required information is: Sponsor Name, sponsor contact (email and phone preferred), artisan name, artisan contact, entry piece, categories on which the sponsor will comment. Online registration is preferred at the form linked from the Kingdom A&S webpage or directly by phone. Pre registration will close on October 15. If you hope to attend but are not sure, please pre-register, even if you must cancel before the event.

I would like to strongly encourage those eligible to act as sponsors to consider the artisans in their local area and to seek out those who may be too shy to approach you, but who may be just the people who would most benefit from participating in this event. If you are an artisan in need of a sponsor, please contact your local A&S Minister or me directly. There are many willing sponsors; no one need miss this opportunity.

Due to the interactive nature of this event, only those who are present to participate will be eligible to win Her Majesties Prize. Absentee displays will be permitted as space allows. No absentee sponsors will be permitted.

THLady Chiara Grassi

Minister of the Lists

To the fighters of the Outlands, Greetings!

Again, the search for heirs to the stag throne is close upon us. I look forward to the pageantry, and the exhilarating fighting always witnessed in our Crown list. I hope you have the opportunity to safely travel north, and join in the festivities. There is truly nothing to compare to Crown Tournament.

As school starts, and the summer camping season draws to a close, please take a moment to thank your marshals, heralds, waterbearers and MoLs for their work. There can never be too many pats on their backs. And I say thank you to you, the fighters, for giving us a group to serve.

As Ever Yours,
Lady Mariah Abramsdottir

White Stag Principle Herald

Greetings, fellow Outlanders!

DECISION MEETING: I am most pleased to announce that Furukusu Masahide has agreed to take on the duties of Rampart Herald. For more information on upcoming decision meetings, please contact him at rampart@outlandsheralds.org HERALDIC MYTHBUSTING: There is some confusion about what constitutes a title, what is a form of address, how to refer to someone, and what to use in various situations. A title comes before a name, such as Queen, Duke, Countess, Viscount, Baroness, Prince, Lady, Sir, Mistress, Dr. or Mr. A form of address is a stand-alone phrase that does not include a name, such as Your Majesty, Your Grace, milord, madam, and is used when speaking to the person. A referent form is used when speaking about the person, such as Her Majesty, His Lordship, Her Excellency. An interesting note about "The Honorable Lord" or "The Honorable Lady" is that it appears to be very late period, and only ever used in writing, never in speech, according to a discussion held at KWHS.

Thus, one could say, "Excuse me, Master William," or "Good morrow, milady," but not, "Excuse me, Your Grace Miriam," or "Good morrow, Milord Stephen." It is proper usage to begin a letter "Unto the Honorable Lady Dametta," and proper usage to speak about her to someone else as "Lady Dametta," or to say, "I will carry the letter to Her Ladyship," but period usage does not support introducing her in person to your local costuming guild as "the Honorable Lady Dametta."

An occasional myth is that only a "fighting award" should be referenced in address on the field - if such were the case, then it would make as much sense to say that only an "art" or "service" award should be referenced at feast - after all, gentlemen should not perform feats of arms in the feast hall, lest they break the crockery or spill the wine - such that Sir Bertram should be called only Bertram, if he had received no award specifically for a non-martial art or his service. That said, which title does one use on the field? By default, use the highest-ranking title that the person has. If that individual expresses a preference for a different title to which they have a right, i.e. if Count Drago is also a knight, and prefers to use Sir, by all means, announce him as Sir Drogo. If Mistress Egelina has an Award or Grant of Arms, and prefers to use Lady, likewise introduce her as Lady Egelina.

On a final note, title-stacking as it is sometimes done in other kingdoms is simply not period. Duke Sir Baron Master Joe or Countess Mistress Joan is jarring to the ear. More melodious - and more correct - would be His Grace, Sir Joe, Companion of the Pelican and a Baron of the Court, or Her Excellency, Mistress Joan.

LOAR RESULTS: Two LoARs have been received since my last letter. Details are available at: http://www.sca.org/heraldry/loar/

Although it seems odd to talk of heirs while Their Royal Majesties' full glory is upon them, our Great King and Queen, being mindful of their duty have declared that a Great Tournament will be held on September 10, AS XXXX in their most loyal Shire of Dúthaich Beinne Áird to determine their heirs.

We will have the run of the entire Faire Grounds of the local county. Since the local University is holding a primitive contest involving an oblong spheroid that same day, the Shire encourages those who wish stay in local inns begin to make contacts with those inns as soon as possible. We have been unsuccessful at obtaining special rates due to this so-called "football" contest. However, we will have indoor "camping" space available in our secondary hall (60 x 80 feet). If you wish to use this space, which has restrooms but no showers, the cost will be included in your site fee.

The site is wet (period containers only). There will be a donation lunch on Saturday and feast on Sunday evening will be coordinated by Lord Valeryjan Mistress and Galiana (so you know you won't go away hungry). Reservations for feast are required, and pre-payment is greatly appreciated. Feast reservations will close on September 2. If enough people use the site crash space, the shire will offer a breakfast on Sunday.

Since we have the site all night, revels will be held in the same place as feast.

Society Minister of Arts and Sciences

Approved Rules for the Study and Education of Historical Combat Techniques within the SCA.
From the Office of the Society MoAS - Approved July 15/2005 BoD Mtg
Tim Jennings, Society MoAS. (as@sca.org)
David Biggs – Society Deputy for Martial Studies (davidabiggs@hotmail.com)

The purpose for the subsequent rule set is to create a place in the SCA where the study, teaching, and (controlled) demonstration of historical combat techniques and practices have a home society-wide. There has been some question whether historical combat classes and demonstrations belong under the purview of the Marshallate or of the Ministry of Arts and Sciences, and this document strives to define where the responsibility of the Office of Arts and Sciences shall begin and end.

The study of the historical combat arts under the Office of Arts and Sciences is meant to allow for the teaching and demonstration of historical martial arts that may otherwise be prohibited by or beyond the scope of the set of rules as set forth by the Office of the Marshallate. This is in no way to be construed as an impediment or replacement to the use (current or future) of historical combat techniques in the combat forms allowed by the Society Marshal's Office, so long as said techniques do not violate the standing rules at the time in which they are implemented. All 'competitive' sport combat is under the direct control of the Office of the Marshallate.

1. The 'Non-Competitive' study and demonstration of historical martial arts, systems, and principles shall be regulated as and if necessary by the Ministry of Arts and Sciences.
    a. The Society Minister of Arts and Sciences intends to appoint a knowledgeable deputy to coordinate and oversee this activity.
    b. The Kingdoms of the SCA may choose to appoint a knowledgeable deputy to coordinate and oversee the activity on the kingdom level. This deputy will serve under the Kingdom Minister of Arts and Sciences, and will report to this Minister as if they were a senior officer (Baronial) and should be warranted where appointed.
2. Theatrical performances:
   All theatrical performances involving stage combat will choreograph, rehearse and perform such stage combats in a manner consistent with the safety guidelines set forth by such professional organizations as the American, Canadian and British societies of fight directors, as is appropriate for the locale in question. These include, but are not limited to, plays and performances - the primary purpose of which is for the entertainment of an audience. No free combat play will take place within any theatrical performance conducted as a part of the activities of the SCA, inc.
3. Historical Combat Studies (non-theatrical) that fall under the purview of the Ministry of Arts and Sciences:
   Must be supported by (at a minimum) research and documentation appropriate to the activity in question, consistent with that expected for any other A&S entry as appropriate to the kingdom in which the activity will occur. Any combat study or demonstration that falls outside this guideline does not fall under the purview of the Ministry of Arts and Sciences and will default to the Marshallate in the Kingdom in which the activity occurs.
    a. In presenting, demonstrating, and teaching the historical combat arts neither the teachers, students, or any other participants shall engage in free-assault, sparring, or any form of competitive use of the arts or practice weapons.
        i. In the demonstration of movements and techniques, whether as an A&S demonstration/presentation or as part of a historical combat class, teachers and their assistants may employ only such drills, plays, and exercise patterns as are indicative of the art being demonstrated or taught, at only such speed that is prudent, safe and necessary for the drill, play or exercise to be properly and safely employed as determined by the instructor, primary presenter, and/or the Ministry for Arts and Sciences.

ii. In historical combat classes, teachers may allow students to work with one another in drills, plays, and exercises, conducted in accordance with safety practices followed by the art being taught, at only such speed as is prudent, safe and necessary for the drill, play or exercise to be properly and safely employed, as determined by the instructor and/or the Ministry for Arts and Sciences. The class participants will at all times act and respond in a manner deemed safe and controlled by the class instructor and/or the Minister for Arts and Sciences or their appointed deputy or immediately forfeit their right to participate in said class.

b. All presentations and demonstrations must consist only of plays, drills, or techniques predefined and agreed upon by all participants before the action in question occurs. Participants will at all times act and respond in a manner deemed safe and controlled by each other and the Ministry for Arts and Sciences.

c. When the participants of a class, presentation, or demonstration enact a drill, play, or technique with practice weapons or simulators at a distance close enough to strike one another, eye protection is suggested and encouraged. Such protection might consist of polycarbonate sports goggles, a 12kg 3-weapons mask, or their equivalent in protective quality. Exceptions to this might include classes where the mask or protective equipment would hinder the instructor's ability to demonstrate a particular technique or theory. Participants in a class, presentation, or demonstration should wear such other safety equipment as they deem appropriate. Use of any protective clothing and/or equipment may be required at any time at the discretion of the class instructor, the primary presenter/ demonstrator or by Kingdom Law or Policy.

d. For performances and demonstrations, a delineated area will be required. The office of Arts and Sciences suggests a minimum 10-foot distance between the performers and the judges and audience. Instructors/demonstrators and participants should consider the nature of the demonstration or performance and maintain an appropriate distance between the combat activity and any observers.

e. At this time, no more that two participants may interact at a time in any play, simulation, or drill used for historical combat training while studying or demonstrating the historical combat arts. This does not preclude group warm-ups, physical exercise training, or multiple pairs of participants working through a play, simulation, or drill at the same time.

f. Under the circumstances laid out above, acceptable simulators/practice weapons include, but are not limited to, rebated steel, aluminum, wood, and rattan.

4. Final Note: Where Study becomes Combat:
Where the study of Historical Combat in a Kingdom leads to the use of a competitive weapons form, there may be crossover between the office of the A&S and the Marshallate, in terms of jurisdiction. It is not the intention of the Society A&S office to ever include any competitive combat art in its purview. Therefore, while study, practice and demonstration of historical techniques may fall under this office, any sparring and/or competition in the form may only be allowed where the Marshallate of the Kingdom agrees and provides rules for such. E.G: The rules and regulations covering Caid's historical combat studies with padded weapons are outlined in the document RULES FOR UNARMORED COMBAT (Kingdom of Caid Unarmored Combat Rules) and might easily encompass both offices, but any actual combat, including sparring, authorization, etc, shall remain under and default to the office of the Marshallate. The simple rule is, if it's free-assault, sparring, or any form of competitive use of the arts or practice weapons, or the Kingdom requires you to authorize in it, then it does not fall under the Ministry of Arts and Sciences.

The Board of Directors needs your help! We ask that you write or email the Board giving us your comments regarding any of the nominees on this list with whom you are familiar. While all commentary is more than welcome, we find it especially helpful to read your assessments of the nominee's abilities in areas such as working with diverse groups of people, understanding of varied aspects of the SCA, ability to plan and carry through projects to completion, ability to meet deadlines and keep up with correspondence, and past experiences in either SCA or modern world capacities that would be useful on a nonprofit corporation's Board of Directors. We also strongly encourage you to send us the name and contact information of anyone you feel would make a good candidate for the Board of Directors. All commentary is kept confidential, and new Directors never see the commentary made about them. Please address comments to the Ombudsman for Board Recruiting: Lis Schraer, 3651 Hartford St., St. Louis, MO 63116, or send them via email to recruiting@sca.org.
